

Stephanie Cole

Cosmetologist and hair salon owner Stephanie Cole's own breast cancer ordeal at the age of 35 made her realize the power of community and inspired her to give back to survivors such as herself.

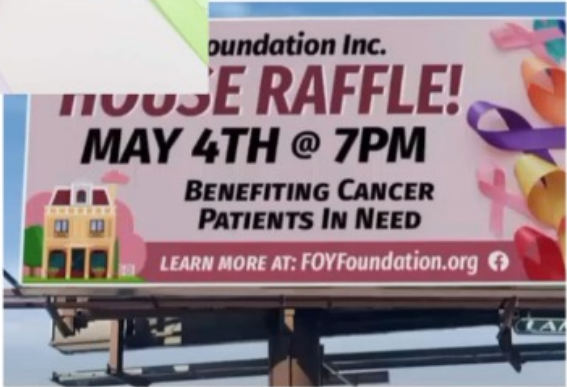

Diagnosed in April 2022 with early-stage ductal carcinoma in-situ, Stephanie was advised to have a mastectomy and set out to raise $15,000 any way she could, even selling raffle tickets for her own house. She received her surgery and treatment thanks in part to coverage under All Women Count! and additional assistance from local cancer patient assistance non-profits in the Black Hills, and she was inspired to found her non-profit the Focus on You Foundation to help financial need.

Stephanie is thankful to be one year clean from breast cancer, and lives in Rapid City with her son Samuel, her daughter Lilyanna and their pet pigeon, Pige.
